

Company Database System

Practice Questions

- 1. Find the top 3 highest-paid employees in each department:
- 2. Find the departments that spend the most on salaries, but only those whose total salary expense is greater than the average salary expense of all departments:
- 3. Find employees whose salary is greater than the average salary in their department but less than the average salary across the company:
- 4. Find employees who work on more projects than the average number of projects worked on by employees in their department:
- 5. List departments where more than 50% of employees earn above the average salary of their department:
- 6. Find employees who manage a department and also work on projects in departments other than their own:
- 7. Find projects that have more employees working on them than the average number of employees across all projects:
- 8. List departments where every employee works on at least one project:
- 9. Find employees who do not work on any project in their own department but work on projects from other departments:
- 10. Find employees whose dependent count is greater than the average dependent count across all employees in their department: