

Practice: Avoiding Run-Ons

Correct the following run-on sentences by using the strategies previously discussed.

1. I moved to the United States when I was young it was easy to learn English, my parents were already here, they knew English already.

2. Juan and David recognized each other they had been in the first grade together.

3. Her car would not start she was late for class.

4. The parents ate the baby slept in her stroller.

5. Eli wants to quit smoking this habit is too expensive.

Practice: Avoiding Fragments

Correct these sentences using the strategies previously discussed.

1. The dog loved his new toys. Especially the ones that squeaked.

2. Maggie remembered her childhood. Her mother making pancakes for dinner in the small apartment.

3. She decided to meet her new friend in a public place. That they had arranged over e-mail.

4. Because she met him on MySpace. She thought it was a good idea to be cautious.

5. I cannot wait until President's Day. Finally, a day off.
